

Designated Agent Company

The door just opened to 15 million potential customers

Talk about opportunity knocking

As you know, there are pockets of uninsured out there open to health coverage, but limited by cost. Through DAC, you can help.

DAC helps you reach them

Designated Agent Company (DAC) is an established general agency specializing in reaching those without an Affordable Care Act (ACA) health plan. DAC conveniently brings together products from multiple carriers into one suite, offering you more flexibility in putting together the right solution for the unique needs of each client. From basic protections for accidents and critical illnesses to products that limit their liability, cover pre-existing conditions and more — DAC has your clients covered!

The key is building the right package

There are 15 million working uninsured Americans across the country who cannot take advantage of ACA subsidies¹, and they would love to hear about less expensive alternatives. That positions you as the ultimate concierge, helping your clients mix and match different product types to create a custom-built plan that's right for them.

Here are a couple of examples of how you can bundle these products to meet the needs of clients in many different life situations — and increase your commission.

Meet Ashley, the Millennial²

Ashley's 28 years old and married without kids. Her salary as a Designer is $60,000 a year. She and her husband are healthy and uninsured. She'd consider a health plan for basic coverage they can afford. Here's an idea of what you can do for them:

Critical illness & accident coverage: $77

- Protection in the event of a severe, unexpected medical scenario
- $5,000 for critical illnesses and accidents

Telemedicine visits: $25

- Access to a doctor from anywhere with computer/ smartphone and wifi
- Prescription discounts at over 68,000 participating pharmacies nationwide

A total premium less than
$110 a month

Meet Larry, the almost-retired Baby Boomer²

At age 57, Larry's not too far from being eligible for Medicare — but not too close either. He's married, has no kids that require coverage and makes $85,000 a year as a self-employed business consultant. He's watching every dollar and only wants a basic coverage plan until Medicare kicks in.

Critical illness & accident coverage: $77

- Protection in the event of a severe, unexpected medical scenario
- $5,000 for critical illnesses and accidents

Hospital indemnity plan: $137

- Reduce the first day of initial hospital expenses
- $3,000 hospital benefits annually

A total premium less than
$220 a month

2 The examples provided are for the products listed using specific ages and zip code of the applicant. Product cost and availability will vary by the consumer's state, age and zip code.

These products are not qualifying health coverage (Minimum Essential Coverage) that satisfies the health coverage requirement of the Affordable Care Act. The termination or loss of any of these policies does not entitle the client to a special enrollment period to purchase a health benefit plan that qualifies as minimum essential coverage outside of an open enrollment period. These products may include a pre-existing condition exclusion provision.
